

Heyba Bayba's, Howba Areba Youbas?

WE'RE SWELL!!!

Scenery is here, Wish you were beautiful! Which, of course, about sums up our year...all the right words were there, but just a little fucked up.

We're obviously planning on surviving our divorce, although we can't say the same for everyone.

We'd like to thank all of our out of town persons for the party favors, and to all of our in-town persons...

HA-HA!!! YOU BOUGHT IT!!!

And lastly we would like to thank each other for being so incredibly gracious throughout the entire year (gush-gush), and to our loving parents for giving birth to us so effectively.

FRIENDS:

As we ponder over the events of the last year we wonder, was it all worth it?

ANSWER:

You bet your ass!!!

Two individuals, namely Emperor VII Sam and Empress VII Mrs. K have provided us with a full year of work and craziness. Thanx Kids!

We hope you enjoy yourselves tonight and all weekend. If there is anything we can do to make your stay a memorable one let us know. Eight years is a long time for a gay organization to survive and be supported, but Edmonton has proved once again that we can do it.

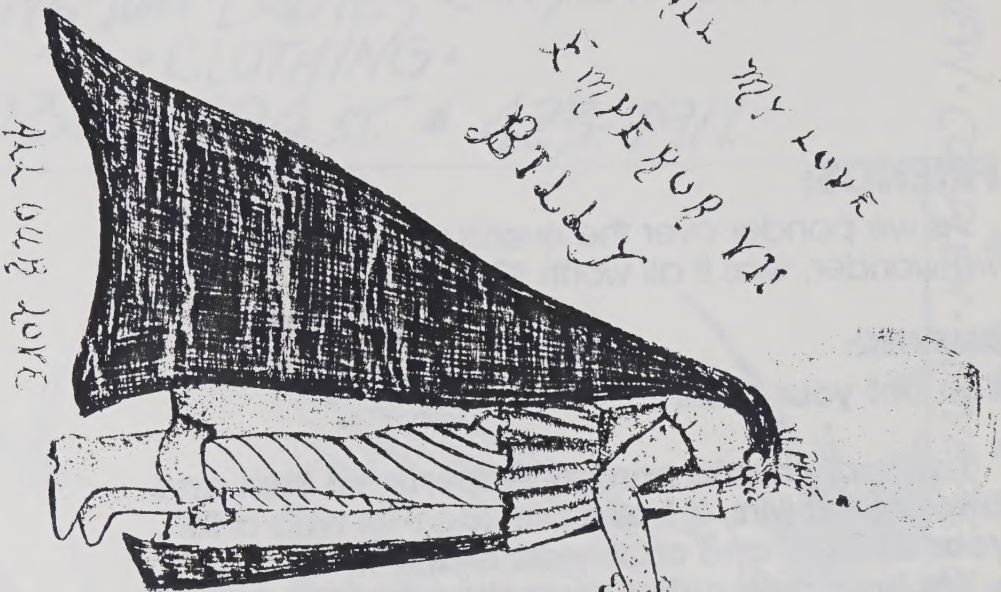

So be good, be gay and have fun with us at the best damn party in town.

I remain

VOTING PROCEDURES

This year as in the past voting for the position of Emperor and Empress VIII was conducted at BOOTS AND SADDLE and FLASHBACK. Steel ballot boxes were obtained from the City of Edmonton Election Offices and have been used at the polling stations. The polling stations were manned by members of the College of Emperors and Empresses.

Ballots were made available to the patrons of the clubs involved upon request and were deposited by the voters into the ballot boxes. In order to avoid double balloting the voters hand was then marked with stamps at each of the polling stations.

Voting ran from 9:00 P.M. until 1:00 A.M. when the boxes were sealed and delivered to the Holiday Inn for safekeeping until the day of the ball. On the day of the ball the results were tabulated by the hotel staff and the results were placed in a sealed envelope that was held by the reigning monarchs until Coronation.

We believe these procedures ensured a fair and secret ballot and trust that you will agree.

Cheers, Star here:

I guess this is it, my dowager message, and my last chance to write a paragraph or better in one of these here programs.

A year ago, or more, I gave birth to my chosen (though there was no choice) son and daughter, an odd couple with funny names, who married despite their obvious personal flaws. For example, due to Daryl 6's advanced age (physically speaking) Downs Syndrome was a must.

In a whirlwind of mental illness, these two conducted a year of monarchhood which has been like no other. To the very best friends in my life, G & S I say:

I HATE YOU, NELLIE OLSON

and thanks for allowing me to nag you and be so downright wonderful doing it.

To Calgary, as always, you're a real sparkly.
Co-Regents — What an idea!

To Edmontonians I say: 'MMMMMMMMM I Like to Dance a Little Side Step.' There will never be another dowager like me...they've decided to shoot those who further aspire to this position.

I can't believe I still fucking remain

Mr. Lindee Star
Empress Emeritus VI

P.S. Welcome home Pythias...What's in the box?

Congratulations to the new
Emperor and Empress
